COVID-19 Mandatory Testing Protocol

Following a comprehensive review of colleges and university performance in fall term, the University of Denver (DU) identified eight institutions that were able to operate their fall term in person with case counts/positivity rates at or below DU's case counts/positivity rates in surrounding communities with COVID-19 prevalence conditions at or above those in Denver. Although DU completed 29,833 Nasal Swab RT-PCR tests in fall term, each of these eight institutions conducted significantly more testing than DU. Therefore, to manage the higher expected positivity conditions in winter term, DU is changing its COVID-19 testing program and providing resources for a significant increase in test frequency.

All students, faculty, staff, and other personnel participating in any on-campus activities at DU must participate in DU's COVID-19 testing program on the schedule set forth below. This includes all students, faculty, staff and other personnel who live, work, and/or attend classes on campus. All students living in Congregate Housing or who have close contact with other DU students must participate in the mandatory testing program, even if their class schedule is entirely online.

For purposes of this protocol:

- Congregate Housing includes:
 - University owned or operated housing, such as residence halls and apartment communities; and 0

• Lower Contact includes faculty, staff and other personnel who have not been designated as Higher Contact.

Exceptions:

tepc

- Students enrolled in fully online programs that normally have no in-person component on campus, such as certain offerings through University College.
- Employees who are working remotely, do not come to campus, and do not have close contact with DU community members who participate in on-campus activities.
