

University of Denver
Faculty Senate
New Senator Orientation Materials

The Faculty Senate is empowered by its Constitution to be the primary body through which the faculty participate in the collaborative governance of the University of Denver. The Senate is composed of approximately 0 Members, who are elected to represent the academics of the University. The Senate's meetings are held monthly and sometimes more frequently-- throughout the academic year.

Relating to Faculty Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure violation of academic freedom.

Faculty Athletic Committee

Function: the committee shall protect the academic integrity of the University and insure the primacy of the educational experience in athletic programs, in three ways:

1. Formulating and recommending policy to the Provost regarding all aspects of athletic programs at the University, including, but not limited to, policies to assure that athletes have the opportunity to participate fully in the processes of educational and career development, and to assure that admissions officers, administrators, faculty and students are protected from inappropriate pressures associated with athletic performance;
2. Monitoring the educational experiences of athletes and the impact of athletics on all academic programs at the University; and,
3. Assuring that there is regular and open sharing of information with the University community about all aspects of the University's athletic programs, including information about new and existing policies, information about the academic performance of student athletes and academic support services for them, and information about the finances of athletic programs and their impact on the University budget.