That the exemption previously granted, from the payment of the Denver

This letter is to confirm relief on functions and activities, is still in effect.

The exemption regarding annual income collection and other types of sales tax on sales of the organization may vary by purchase by employees of the organization. You may wish to contact the Denver Controller's Office regarding this exemption. The exemption is based upon the assumption that your operations will continue as stated in the information submitted to the Department of Revenue for consideration of this exemption.
