

Health advocacy services are NOT health insurance or medical services, and this program does not provide either for health care losses of health care services. Health advocacy services are provided under a contract with Health Advocate, Inc. subject to all of the terms of the program. Full terms, conditions and exclusions are contained in the Health Advocate service agreement.