

Appendix B: Document Review

This Appendix provides a general format of the Research Compliance Monitor's (RCM) process for conducting Document Review.

Document Review

The Document Review includes a thorough review of the approved and pending IRBNet research records and documents by the RCM. The PI does not need to be present during this part of the process. In general, this part of the PAM program takes place between the time the PI is notified and up until the