• More autonomy to create based on graduate specific needs.

•

fund community and professional development within each respective college. GSG does not receive any of that funding.

Currently, the University generously carves out $6,000 per academic year to GSG directly from the Office of Student Engagement's allocation. This is not something the University does for Undergraduates, who pay approximately $145/quarter in order to Pending GSG Senate's vote on the fee resolution during week 8 of spring quarter 2023,