

and provides such access with the University's consent, which the University can withdraw at any time. Accordingly, the University may restrict the use of face coverings as set forth in this Policy to promote health and safety, to avoid disruption to University operations and consistent with the University's mission.

- D. The University may require students, faculty, staff, vendors, contractors, and visitors to wear face coverings to prevent or limit the transmission of communicable viruses or diseases based on conditions on campus or in the local community or state or local public health orders or guidance

III. PROCESS OVERVIEW

A. The University strongly encourages all members of University community to report potential violations of this Policy to the Department of Campus Safety. For potential violations involving students, individuals may submit an incident report to the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities.

B. The University will address reports of violations of this Policy as follows:

1. Referring employees to Human Resources and Inclusive Community for investigation and any resulting disciplinary action;
2. Referring students to the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities for action under the Honor Code; and
3. Consult with Campus Safety in determining whether visitors, vendors,

B. University Policy SAFE 7.10.080 . Demonstrations

C. University Policy 2.30.081 . Policy and Principals on Freedom of Expression

D. Honor Code

E. University Policy EOIX 3.10.010 . Discrimination and Harassment

Revision Effective Date	Purpose